

MEMORIES OF THE YEARS 1920 - 1924

Notes by Alice Macfarlane (nee Wherrett) of her memories of her time as a full time student in the Faculty of Arts 1920 - 1922 (graduating 1923) and the Teachers' College 1923-4. She married Charles Macfarlane, who graduated in 1925 and who was for many years Principal of Burnie High School. The notes refer particularly to Professors Flynn, Dunbabin, W.H. Williams and Aleander McAulay and "the amoral Raamsdonk" lecturer in French & German. She also refers to J. A. Johnson the principal of the Teachers' College, "a great educator and a most inspiring lecturer.
