

Sketch 23

Taken 6.4.1872

Hop feast at Lisdillon. Sitting at the table Mr William John Lyne there? Father & Mr Smith of Swansea School carving, Kate, self, Amy, Fred Shaw & Mark M ., & others waiting at table. Romer Meadows from England who came out to Mayor Dumbleton of the North Coast & was not wanted, & father heard of it and asked him for a month & then he went for two years to the Lynes and with them to N.S.Wales, where he married, & settled down – a cask of beer was bought, & Romer was to see that no one got too much. Some did have rather too much.