RULES OF THE LIBRARY
OF THE
VAN DIEMEN'S LAND
MECHANICS' INSTITUTION.

1.—That the Library be open for delivering out and receiving Books every Wednesday evening from five o'clock till seven.

2.—That every Member shall produce his Admission Ticket, if required, on taking out or returning a Book.

3.—That no Member shall have more than two volumes of the same work at a time, except in the case of the plates belonging to any subject being in a separate volume, or his residence being two miles or upwards from the Institution, when four volumes of a work may be taken out; but these volumes must be returned at the expiration of the time allowed for one.

4.—That one week be allowed for reading an octavo volume and under, and two weeks for a quarto, or folio, including the days of delivery and return.

5.—That if a Book be not returned on the day appointed, the Member shall pay a fine of two-pence for every day the Book shall be detained; and if kept above seven days, three-pence a day; and if not returned within fourteen days after the day fixed for its return, application shall be made to the Member for the same; and, if it be not then returned, the Member shall pay double the value thereof, or of the set of Books to which it belongs; and in default of such payment, he shall cease to be a Member of the Institution.

6.—That a Member lending a Book to any person shall pay a fine of five shillings.

7.—That if a Book be written in, or otherwise damaged, the Member in whose hands the Book was at the time, shall pay double the value of the Book, or replace the same within one month, at the discretion of the Committee.

8.—That all fines be paid to the Librarian within one month after being incurred, and in default thereof, the names of the Members incurring the same, shall be notified to the Committee; and if, after application made to them by the Committee for payment, such fines are not paid within one week, such defaulters shall cease to be Members of the Institution.

9.—That proper Books be kept for entering the Books taken out of the Library, and for registering the Members' applications for Books to be taken out.

10.—That a Member, on returning a Book, may take the same again out of the Library, if no application for it has been previously made.

11.—That no Books shall be taken from the shelves of the Library, except by the Librarian, or by persons duly authorised by him, under a penalty of sixpence for each offence.

12.—That any Member removing a Book from the room wherein it is placed, or taking it from the Institution without the knowledge of the Secretary or Librarian, will incur a fine of five shillings.

13.—That no Book shall be circulated after the 15th day of December in each year, till the day after the Annual General Meeting, in order that time may be allowed for comparing the state of the Library with the Catalogue.
