The other part not yet recollected.

In the afternoon, went to Chapel. I had to complain of being beat by large waves, so much I thought I had no sincere repentance. All other things excepted I might obtain pardon of my chief if I continued from sufficient of my favour but I was told that Repentance is so sufficient if it produce a change of life, a leaving of as much sorrow as to occasion a relapsing of all sin. But that it is only not in every case produce such a depth of despair as it did in my case of a sinner who was going to destroy himself.

I commit this (I hope) with all earnestly. I have not now sufficient repentance, nor I cannot act 1.

It is known sin is heavy. As no way by exaltation therefore. This time the Holy Spirit was poured out in plentifully
