to him to come up to the true standard. educated by his parents in the principles of the Church of afterwards. He was to join the Methodists but happening to fall in with a copy of Baxter Doctrⁿ of mind. He saw this was what he had been so long seeking after he read Bp. Hys 4th & 5th books. & had attended meetings in Ireland but not espayed to join Gods in membership, because he did not see that he could uphold all the principles & feared more that his not doing the reproach that would be brought on the body at large than on himself. E. M. saw it right to advise him to apply for
