

Letter from
Miss Sarah Thompson
Walker

(2nd daughter G. W. W.) from Paris (where she resided with her sister Mary).

(8 Feb 1899)

Yesterday alone but only stayed 2 hrs last night - a week ago the Wrote I had a long letter from dear Mrs Scott & Mrs Mann - Mr Clarke was the way from Paris - Saturday, 2-99.

am wondering whether you will get my last week's letter before I receive + this too. When I went to the post office last Friday morning (arrived) took up at 5.30 p.m. in London) all I could get out of the clerk was that the trustee mail went on the 24th (!) that was the 3rd. It was no as if I ought to have ~~some~~ before but I believe this letter quarters has just made all the difference to me. It has given me courage perhaps more than strength. I did not feel as if I could face anything. No I don't think I could have got thro' all the bother & fatigue of getting away without breaking down.

However I won't waste time over that. But I know it will satisfy you more than anything.

Samma wrote me a beautiful letter full of all things I wanted to know.
I am sitting up in bed writing & the house I think has given to bed. I have only a $\frac{1}{2}$ in of candle left so I must stop.
I went across the Place de Bourgogne to call on the maids ~~friend~~ but she was out. Today is quite mild & spring like after the bitter cold.

I told him there was a mail every week he only repeated that it would be the 24th: I wonder my letter was put aside for the 24th I don't know - You will be rather tired if a 3rd week goes by & no letter appears. I am dreadfully sorry - I hope dearest - Ellen is getting & flourishing long before this. I am dreadfully sorry that she has this quarter. it looks
