Winn May 30th / 35 -

My dear Aunt.

I in the greatest haste I write a few lines to accompany the screens I have sent to my Uncle for your new Drawing-room, which I hope you will like - The pattern is quite new and fashionable - I saw your Curtains at the upholsterer's yesterday - I hope they may please you more than they did me - All tastes are not the same - Grandma has looked out another cargo of early drawings for your young ones - they may amuse them - I hope they have been amused with the little books I sent them - Give their Cousin Louis a love to them, and Wish them the often wishes herself among them for a while, to gain strength and health among their native woods and wilds - My health is very precarious I am just recovering a little from a most severe illness, and am as thin and pale as a Parson - I was about to say a Turnip, but the comely round figure would destroy the likeness - My mamma too remains very uncertain - sometimes pretty well, and then her head becomes bad again we are a hobbling pair - I am fairly scrubbing of aish time - Pray pardon the frankness of pseudo-sentiment - and with our united love, believe me

Your truly affectionate Louisa Murray.
