

June 22 1830-

My very dear Love,

Whenever you come down on the Saturday, I always feel unhappy, considering ^{it} quite improper to leave the boys alone every Sunday - you will remember, that I have repeatedly told you that - now, however, I am so fully convinced of the wil, that I shall not again consent to their being left, unless ^{when} the weather will permit of my sending my Dear Sarah, to stop until your return. - what do you think of the boys remaining out un-til eleven o'clock on a Sunday night - I do not mean once, or twice, but the making a practice of this. I shall only add, that it will never oblige them to stop out later than nine, unless you are with them; there are other things, I shall tell you when I see you again - Sarah will come on Saturday if the day is fine -

From your affectionate

Wife

Ann Mother
