Beloved Gary

I am staying here for ten days for the beginning of my vac: found them all looking well but the weather is horrid, more like Nov: than Aug: grey, cold & drizzly no summer about it at all. Anne had a letter from you the other day about the 2nd edition of her book, she is ever so much cheered by your report, & it is good of you to act as such an efficient agent for her my dear. she was much

I raised a tremendous interest in the whole thing in one, today comes the news of the $2 mile flight in 2 1/4 hours which breaks
 the record.
 so far.
 I'll send you a c.c. from Germany.
 I'll try to have get on.
 Lots of love dearest in love
 Anne

Shocked to find she'd never acknowledged the money you sent as she fully imagined she had: I expect the poor dear was huddled about that time & forgot! On Sept 1st day B. I contemplate starting for Friedrichroda in Thuringerwald to visit Kit, see how she is getting on, we shall have just a fortnight before I have to return for the beginning of the session & it will be a real rest-change as we haven't been abroad for a holiday for nearly 3 years now.
 I am very anxious to see Herr Eylau

Always your friend
 Heather
 Dad & I would love to be in off playing joins.

I get tomorrow exactly what his opinion is of Kit's abilities & chances as a professional: of course we only get vague statements from the child herself as he isn't likely to tell her all he thinks - but I talk fairly he is extremely interested in her & thinks she has genius & from what I hear believe he is anxious to keep her in Berlin & teach her for a year or two & then launch her out. If so I think it would be a great chance & we ought to let her stay - Kit has written me most excited letters on the subject but she can't propose such a bold course to the home authorities, so begs me to try - work it. I do hope it will be managed but the best way is to go Amesbury - north 100000 like motors. It rained a tremendous amount.

P.S. Love to dear Dingo

I see really how they stand, then I shall have something to go on. It seems the chance of a life time for Kil. doesn't it? Of course I could see how they would miss her here especially Anne. But it does seem a pity to let sentiment stand in the child's light doesn't it? She is having a most heavenly time now - the atmosphere of water & music, & the stimulus of Eylan, & the other students - they go long walking expeditions to the most lovely places in the woods - mountains, Eylan takes them & tells them the history of all the places on the way. He seems charming & the very spirit of music & inspires them all. We shall enjoy being with them I'm sure, they are all so young & cheerful! The woods sound perfect. I do love German woods don't you? if only the weather will be decent! Kit is going to
