

Colonial Secretary's Office, 18th January, 1828.

Sir,

I am directed to acquaint you, that the Lieutenant Governor has received Earl Bathurst's answer to His Excellency's Despatch, submitting your two Memorials; the one praying for compensation in lieu of House Rent, and the other for loss sustained by the nonconfirmation of an alteration in the line of Road through your property on the margin of Sullivan's Cove.

His Excellency regrets, that the Secretary of State has not been pleased to grant the prayer of the former Memorial; but as it appears by the report of a Committee, that you have sustained a loss of the

Sir

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter but do not see what arrangements I can make I am ignorant of business and I know nothing of surveying but I have always acted by the sanction of the ~~provident~~ governor for the time being and have regulated my conduct by the Government officers and feel that if there be errors in any of the arrangements that have already been made the I am free from moral culpability. Your conversation and letter ^{which} I have received have quite disabused me - I had suffered so much anxiously about my grant that I hoped for quiet for the rest of my days - my age and infirmities preclude the possibility of my future suffering from being long, and I look to the grave as a resting place for all my affections. My Dear Knopwood

I do think that the proposal which you have made of compromising your debt to Mr. Lord, is one which might be done by Mr. Lord himself with equity and justice, but however anxious I am to promote your interest, I feel that I should be overstepping the limits of my authority were I to accede to the compromise required.

I think that your affairs might easily be arranged to your advantage on the following principles. Apply £600 towards the liquidation of your debt to Mrs. Jones and let me have £400 and give a mortgage on Cottage Green for the remaining debt payable in four years by four instalments - and in this case I will deliver you the judgment deed which I hold of your property. The Colony cannot remain long in its present depressed condition, and you may rest assured that the value of property will rise considerably the moment that the bank begins to issue an available circulating medium. I do not think it possible to dispose of Cottage Green to advantage under existing circumstances.

I am Dear Knopwood
Yours most faithfully

My Dear Knappwood

I enclose what I should recommend you to write - I shall hope to see you tomorrow. I have ordered Hop to proceed against you on the judgment and I am sure you will excuse me as I see no other method of securing Mr. Lord. You must see that I am driven to this by a charitable religion and moral Government. But you may always rest assured of my friendship & support

I am Dear Knappwood
