

MEMORIALS
OF SOUTH AFRICA,

BY BARNABAS SHAW,

WESLEYAN MISSIONARY,

RESIDENT IN THE COUNTRY NEARLY TWENTY YEARS.

(SECOND THOUSAND.)

" Cape of storms, thy spectre fled,
See, the angel Hope, instead,
Lights from heaven upon thy head ;

And where Table-Mountain stands,
Barbarous hordes from desert sands,
Bless the sight with lifted hands."

Montgomery.

LONDON:

SOLD BY J. MASON ; HAMILTON, ADAMS AND CO. ;
AND THOMAS RILEY, GOUGH SQUARE.

1841.

G. W. Walker
from his friend

Jas. Backhouse
1844