OLD ENGLISH MAXIMS.

A penny saved is a penny got—small savings make great gains—and many a little makes a mickle—so take care of the pence, the pounds will take care of themselves.

A great many employ the first of their years to make their last miserable. Do you spare when young, that you may enjoy when old.

For Age and Want save while you may,
No morning sun lasts all the day.

Pleasure to day oft brings repentance to-morrow; and it is foolish to lay out money in the purchase of repentance; for what maintains one vice will bring up two children.

Industry makes a man a purse, and carefulness gives him strings to it: he that has it need only draw the strings as carefulness directs, and he will always find a useful penny at the bottom of it.

But, after all, do not let us depend too much on our own Industry, Carefulness, and Prudence, although they are excellent things, for without the blessing of Heaven they can profit us nothing. Let us, therefore, seek that blessing; and whilst we are laying up treasure on earth, let us also lay up treasure in Heaven.
