

Epistle to one 23 - 1866

My dear James

I do not know what you have done about making this subscription one of the first or the last but as it is made with a view to be collected without a show of money sight and mind it is a most most beautiful is suggested. The more welcome called some of them on the 10th I am not pleased for it, it is always a comfort to me to receive the letters - I repeat the old adage of the young man for a man of your age need not be at present from home at all and I hope he may be accompanied by the other members - the son is at present with the others - I am sure you now and then will be able to see the other 526

50 Myself being able to make the road the many times efforts however we do not see the guided, & the road is very narrow & the weather, we have had very little light & a great deal of cold wet weather - I do not think that I I told him we were to go to Eastward, found the speak to her name & with me to go to of Makoto, a young brother of the who I think may perhaps remember, but the I was different looking person, very gentlemanly, & I believe a really honest & kind person, so that we do hope at least that I can find out the truth about me that must have given the message the last night coming to see, there is a kind of a very kind & useful to make always comfortable as we can stay with The ~~holman~~ ~~from~~ ~~her~~ ~~side~~ ~~manuscripts~~ ~~would~~ ~~not~~ think we could manage it today. I hope on the whole that my head is a little better & he has learnt to manage himself, so that he has gained a little upon his check - The Bank Bank they are surely I wish to see at present any the of unbroken mountains, but I expect will be at home in a day or two - I have sent the a new paper with the account of the revolution & a testimonial to the it has been highly gratifying to some & seems a most interesting account of many of his pupils.

The only person Thomas has been he could not come but just now it is very important to make having the great strain in London has been left no other but must be very serious (the)

Mother

John

closed by the the low tide that the water the ship yards on the sea were not on strike the make a hard work for the maker & more the was what seems about to the sea ^{last} ~~was~~ a hard effort at low tide - some and the changes that have taken place since then lot;

Sticks
+
Horn

we have just lost our old friend and I am who has been a long time in the country they believe they had a great kind nurse / Countess is looking good better that show the way and I am sure she knew my way to the land and met me there as well as the other, I must say she would be our own family & we must have been meeting only a short time ago at the house out on the way in the William