

Holdgate House,
nr York.

10 Nov. 1872

My dear friend

The letter received a few weeks ago was I am glad to see you were very acceptable & of account of the colony Memorable, I was not at the time (see)

My dear friend <sup>interesting</sup> I think the new models not give <sup>not give</sup> the old <sup>since</sup> models my brother & my father were <sup>reflected</sup> My dear friend I am also very but so it is this is indeed a world of change

but so it is this is indeed a world of change

would scarcely know our old city
I am glad to see you were
altered & <sup>the old</sup> the old collected also <sup>near our</sup> near our meeting house are now getting down & a new street is to be opened

new street is to be opened

communication with me has been being the new walk & there is a large increase in population in that part to nearly as far

As the health was better, they are
I am much at the service of my family

My dear Mr. M. I have been thinking I greatly miss them, I have been very companion, Rachel Stone Dampier, Dick & Jane, & am so glad to hear of all of your family & especially of your health to do I send my I am glad to hear of the

to show thee what an to do for the an old woman I am glad to hear that you had sent some I am glad to hear that you had sent some but there was none in the letter. So we hope they may yet come - My cousin Mary I am glad to hear that you had sent some

William
Mary Ann's father & mother
Family is now home near London
I am glad to hear that you had sent some

