

Supplement

No 4.

Inscription in the foundation stone of the Museum at Arcanthe.

---

Laid Mar. 16. 1842. by Lady Franklin in the presence of the Founder Sir John Franklin the Masters and Scholars of the Queen's School and others his friends as the corner stone of an Edifice to be given in trust to the College for the purpose of preserving the productions of Nature in this country and as a rebuke for her Ministers and Interpreters.

---

In Greek, English, Latin, French, German, Italian.

The above is incorrect. original inscription exhibited in Museum shows this

W.H.H. 6/12/1948

Inscription upon the Foundation Stone of the Museum at Ancaulhe
16th March. 1842.