Rosedale Tuesday
morning

Mr J. Husband

I wrote you yesterday but had not an oppor-tunity of sending the letter that and it is day John Lee alias Friday has just been here with his Christmas bill he is just upon the eve of starting for the digging & requires the money will you send a check for nine pounds four shillings send it ~~to~~ to-morrow morning
- have you paid Mr Gifford I have received the things by Mr Lackron but you do not say anything about the mistake of the cherrises at Watchhorns the servants seem quite to go I hope you will be able to get some — Dear papa I want you if possible to get three ^{con-} sellers that would be strong enough for the grand lions to stand in as my son says it would improve the sound if it very much, they of course must all be of the same thickness for it to stand

~~be~~ your affectionate
