My dear Husband

Inclosed is a letter from Miss Hector, received on Saturday which as I did not know her address I enclose to you with ^{you} remember me kindly to them - I hope the refreshing breezes of the Decem^r are refreshing to Mr. Hector

I inclosed is a letter written by the Anna Maria woman to her friend the girl is not eighteen will you read it over & send it per post as direction paid if you see the doctor you can say I think her both intelligent & useful I only hope she will continue if there is the difference of education to striking between catholic & protestant in Ireland it is very great if I contrast my Bewlah & Anna Maria woman - the latter comes from near Lancaster - she wrote her letter when the Bewlah was at Mass yesterday - she seems to take a ~~wide~~ comprehensive view of matters for the short time she has been here. -

Be sure to post it ^{with} all her intelligence she is not at all bold or forward only regret she has ^{not} been taught more domestic that she might make herself more generally useful that she might ^{be} more generally useful

I have added one or two articles to my communications I think you will find it better ^{to send} one or two heavy things by coach a carrier if you can find a safe one - have you got the illustrated from Polwigan I think there are 3 volumes it would amuse you to have them to read it is a long time since we got any from Walsh

Yours in Thanks
