Bunkers (detail), Susan T Grant.

Susan T Grant is a Scottish artist currently based in Edinburgh who will be undertaking a Natural and Cultural International Residency at Port Arthur. Following an M.A. Hons in Fine Art at the University of Edinburgh and Edinburgh College of Art, Susan initiated and managed the artistic education programme at Peacock Visual Arts Centre until 2004. She has since been developing her artistic practice of exhibitions, commissions and artistic residencies. Susan recently completed an international Triangle Arts Workshop on the Orkney Isles and a major public commission for Royal Aberdeen Children's Hospital. She was recently awarded a Scottish Arts Council Artists Award.

Artworks often relate to the original purpose of a space and are made using a range of media, with an emphasis on photography and site-specific sound and sculptural installation. Susan will discuss her recent works, concerned with social change as reflected through architecture and landscape; in particular the evolution and control of communities.
