

ART FORUM 2006

25 October 13th

Jackie McNamee

Pigeon GPS, 2006, Painted wood

Jackie McNamee is an artist based at the Edinburgh Sculpture Workshop (ESW) in Scotland. She has exhibited and participated in artists' projects in the UK, Europe, Scandinavia and Australia, and organises ESW's international programme. She works mainly in wood, presently examining our relationship with a world changing from a community into an economy.

Jackie will talk about her own work, about ESW as an artist led organisation, and about the work and projects, national and international, of other ESW artists. She will be at the School of Art until 22nd October, and for the following month on the Arts Tasmania residency at the Gorge Cottage in Launceston.
